

FY19 Organizational and Professional Development Grant Recipients

BalletNova Center for Dance—BalletNova recently assessed its technology needs and discovered ways that new technology would allow the organization to work more efficiently and productively. With ARTSFAIRFAX support, the purchase of new tablets and computers will allow staff to connect with the organizations database to register and track students.

Jewish Community Center of Northern Virginia—The Jewish Community Center has a new cultural center on the horizon and this grant will allow staff to participate in five national conferences to recruit artists and performers for the new space, as well as expose staff to best practices in the industry.

Mount Vernon Community Children’s Theatre—Technology is key to the growth of arts organization and this ARTSFAIRFAX grant will allow Mount Vernon Community Children’s Theatre to replace antiquated equipment and provide training for staff, allowing the organization to grow financially and expand its audiences.

Reston Community Players—Over the years, Reston Community Players has accumulated a wealth of costumes and props, which it has managed with paper and pen in lending these materials to other organizations. With ARTSFAIRFAX support, Reston Community Players will computerize its inventory of its costumes and props, increasing both access to these resources for schools and community groups, as well as a revenue stream for the organization.
