ARTSFARFAX Call to Artists and Poets

ARTSFARFAX Artist Grants are open to artists in the following disciplines:

- Choreography
- Creative Writing
- Dance Performance
- Film/New Media
- Music Composition
- Music Performance
- Theatre Performance
- Visual Arts

Interested individuals in the poet laureate must be at least 21 years of age, actively working in and/or deriving income from poetry, and must have published at least one work by an established press.

Artist Grant and Poet Laureate Application Deadline are January 9, 2020

Artist Grant and Poet Laureate Information Session

Dozens of artists have been recognized by ARTSFARFAX with an Artist Grant over the last decade for their exceptional work. Would you like to join them? If so, please come to the information session where you will learn what makes a competitive application and how to navigate the application process.
New this year, is the county poet laureate program. This award to a single individual recognizes a professional poet’s achievements and their demonstrated history of accomplishments, and it promotes their continued pursuit of their creative work.

RSVP by Monday, November 12 to grants@ARTSFAIRFAX.org

Music

Bluegrass Barn Concert Series
Frying Pan Park, Herndon, VA

Sideline
Sunday, November 10, 2019 7 pm

Danny Paisley & The Southern Grass
Sunday, November 24, 2019 7 pm

Main Street Chamber Players
Saturday, November 2, 2019 7 pm
Ravensworth Baptist Church
5100 Ravensworth Rd.
Annandale, Virginia 22003
Free Event!

New Dominion Chorale
Sunday, November 3, 2019 4 pm
Saint Luke Catholic Church
7001 Georgetown Pike
McLean, VA
Fairfax Symphony Orchestra
Presents
Nostalgic Nights with Classical Guitarist Berta Rojas

Saturday, November 16, 2019 8 pm
GMU Harris Theatre
4471 Aquia Creek Ln
Fairfax, VA 22030

Braddock District

Washington Balalaika Society
From Baikal to Brazil

Sunday, November 24, 2019 3 pm
Kenmore Performing Arts Center
200 S. Carlin Springs Road
Arlington, VA

Visual Arts

Barcroft Community House Holiday Show
Featuring Former ARTSFairfax Artist in Residence Suzy Scollon

Friday, November 22 2-10 pm
Saturday, November 23, 2019 10 am-6 pm

800 S. Buchanan St.
Arlington, VA 22204

Mason District

Pozez JCC of Northern Virginia
Bar Kocva Gallery
November 14-25, 2019
Israeli jewelry designer Bar Kocva uses the silver, gold, and titanium along with semi-precious stones and ancient Roman Glass to create earrings, broaches, watches, Judaica pieces, and other objects d’art in exclusive, one-of-a-kind designs. This sale will include his works, along with works by other artists from his gallery in Tel Aviv.

Palette Knife Painting: Landscapes
Monday, November 18, 10:30am–12:30pm

In this 2-hour workshop, students will watch a demonstration on how to use a palette knife with acrylic paints and then try using it themselves to create beautiful, rich, textural paintings of their chosen landscapes.

Introduction to Hebrew Calligraphy
Mondays, 10:30-noon
November 25 and December 2

This class will teach you about the millennia-old art of Hebrew calligraphy. Learn about the duties and responsibilities of a sofer(et), the tools modern scribes use, and how to form the letters used to write Torah scrolls. This is a hands-on class where students will try their hand at calligraphy using chisel markers and paper.

---

Film

Creative Cauldron
City of Falls Church

The Jungle Book
November 8 -24, 2019

A musical adaptation of one of the most well-loved books. Danger lurks everywhere for young Mowgli as he learns the “laws of the jungle” from his friends Akela, the wolf, Baloo, the bear, and Bagheera, the panther, who warn him that Shere Khan, the tiger, wants to eat him. But when Mowgli is forced to leave his friends and return to the village from which he came, he soon learns that man is the most dangerous creature of all. With sensitive themes about loyalty, honor, courage, and persistence, the Jungle Book stories have irresistible appeal for audiences of every generation.
19th Annual Northern Virginia Jewish Film Festival

November 7-17, 2019

The 19th Annual Northern Virginia Jewish Film Festival (NVJFF), powered by the Pozez JCC of Northern Virginia (Pozez JCC), will present a dynamic lineup of 22 films in select venues across Northern Virginia from November 7-17. The selection of contemporary international films and accompanying programs will explore the expansive scope and rich texture of Jewish life, culture and global identity.

More Information/Tickets

The Arts from Mason

Great Performances at Mason
Center for the Arts, Concert Hall

Braddock District

Taj Express
Saturday, Nov 09, 2019 8:00pm

The Four Seasons
Sunday, Nov 10, 2019 2:00pm

Virginia Opera: Il Postino
Saturday, Nov 16, 2019 8:00pm
Sunday, Nov 17, 2019 2:00pm

RUBBERBANDance Group
Friday, Nov 22, 2019 8:00pm

Aquila Theatre: George Orwell's 1984
Saturday, Nov 23, 2019 8:00pm

Chanticleer
Saturday, Nov 30, 2019 8:00pm

More Information/Tickets