A MESSAGE FROM ARTSFAXFAIRFAX

On behalf of the Board of Directors of ARTSFAXFAIRFAX we are pleased to present our Fiscal Year 2019 Annual Report. We have had a year of successes and growth, making great progress in supporting the arts and making the arts more accessible to Fairfax County residents.

We thank all our individual, foundation, corporate, and government supporters who make possible our arts promotions, public art with community engagement, Artist Residency Programs in schools, Creative Aging, professional development workshops, the Arts Awards program, and new projects to grow the arts in Fairfax.

We especially thank Fairfax County for its support for the arts through the arts grants program.

Fairfax County has a rich cultural community and outstanding quality of life in which the arts play an important role. We celebrate and thank all the extraordinary artists, arts organizations, and arts patrons in Fairfax County.

Sincerely,

Shelly Hazel
Chair, Board of Directors

ARTSFAIRFAX has transformed our company from supporting us in our infancy to creating opportunities for us to grow and deepen our impact in the community. ARTSFAIRFAX understands that the people of Fairfax County deserve the same high quality cultural life that can be found in urban centers. Without ARTSFAIRFAX, 1st Stage could not have grown into a thriving arts institution dedicated to serving the people of this county.

– Alex Levy, 1st Stage
